

My name is Logan Simon. I am a senior graduating from the School of Health Professions at Townview High School. My end career goal is to become a Certified Registered Nurse Anesthetist specializing in Pediatrics. I always wanted to have a career in the healthcare system and my motivation for that is to help accommodate black patients, specifically black children.